

Education Leeds - Steelpan Symposium

Are you a music teacher, wanting to know more about steelpan?

If so, New World Symphony Steel Orchestra is leading a one day steelpan symposium on Wednesday 9th March 2011 at Leeds West Indian Centre, 10 Laycock Place, Leeds, LS7 3JA.

The aims of the symposium are:

- to provide a clear path for Leeds Schools to develop their steelpan music to an International Level
- to establish continuity in steelpan music from schools to College and University

The day will consist of workshops covering steelpan history, culture and learning the basic elements of steelpan playing.

This event is supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund and key partnerships with ArtForms Education Leeds and the Stephen Lawrence Education Standard.

ANYARD

my